The Preface.

THe singing of Psalms, though it breath forli nothing but holy harmony, and melody : yet such is the subtily of the enemie, and the enmity of our nature against the Lord, & his wayes, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody .-for- There have been three questiōs especially stirrīg cōcerning sing ing. First. what psalmes are to be sung in churches? whether Davids and c-ther scripture psalmes, or the psalmes invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church.
Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as english poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly. by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing alōe and tie rest joynīg in silēce,& in the close sayīg amen.

Touching the first, certainly the singing of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God, not only in his owne, but in succeeding times. as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5. 13. in Iehosha-phats time 2 chron. 20. 21. in Ezra his time Ezra 3. 10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekialis time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 chron. 29, 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once, for this commandement was it cerimoniall or morall? some things in it indeed were ceremoniall, as their musicall instruments &c but what ceremony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typicall? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typicall because the ceremony of musicall instruments was joyned with them, then their prayers were also typicall, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their musicall instruments. Beside, that which was typicall (as that they were sung with musicall instruments, by the twenty-fourre orders of Priests and Levites. 1 chron 25. 9.) must have the morall and spirituall accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests Rev. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God. Rev. 14. 4. as the Levites were Numb. 3. 45. with hearts & lippes, in stead of musicall instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously thinke) Rev. 4. 4. by twēty fourre Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 4. 1, 2, 3. answering to the twenty fourre orders of Priests and Levites 1 chron. 25. 9. Therefore not some select members members, but the whole Church is commaunded to teach one another in all the severall sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by himselfe תְּהִלִּים: psalms, some מְזֻמּוֹרִים: Hymns some שִׁירִים: spirituall songs. soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therfore perpetuall; then wee under the new Testamēt are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are exprely commanded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordīary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirituall Israell; not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end soe their sin is crying before God, who will al- low them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in christian churches.

obj. i If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church.

1Cor. 14, 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of the spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were unable to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherin learned Pareus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Comment on that place vers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his servant David? there is not the least foot-step of example, or precept, or colour reason for such a bold practise.

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporary psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly. Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joyn't consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that componeth a psalme, bring eth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invention; for which wee finde no warrant or president in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the scriptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalmes

Preface.

psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himselfe in infinite wisdome hath made to suit all the conditions, necessities, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as most of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and perticularly cleared) there fore by this the Lord seemeth to stoppe all mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or sing any other psalmes (under colour that the occasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, seing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himselfe hath supplyed us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them those which had extraordnary gifts to compile new songs on those new occasions, as Isaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to sing in the words of David and Asaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but those that are wise will easily see; that those set formes of psalmes of Gods owne appoyntment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were sung in the Spirit by those holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therin to any set formes; and shall set formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be sung in the spirit now, which others did then?

Question. But why may not one cōpose a psalmic & sing it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with

with him in silence and in the end say Amen?

Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to ioyne together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for First. Davids psalmes as hath beeene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty four orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty four Elders all the members especially of christian Churches R&E s. &c. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other order of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospell for their quallification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faifthfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Jewith Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing: as in ps. 100, 1, 2, 3. ps. 95, 1, 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers 16. & Ex. 15. 1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they speake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and deut. 32. (whereto some thinke, Iohn had reference as well as to Ex. 15. 1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Ren. 15. 3.) this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31. 15. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing it together as well as with their hearts.

Preface.

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new-Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate lost soules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52. 8, 9. and Ren. 7. 9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expressly commands the singing of Psalmes, Hymnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5. 19 coll. 3. 16. Paule & Silas sang together in private A&Ps. 16. 25. and must the publick heare only one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us ( saith he ) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same purpose also Eusebius gives witnes, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyning to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing

as also that wee are not alway in a sutable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding ; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together ? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas : men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding ?

As for the scruple that some take at the translatiō of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter : wee answer. First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Thebau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are sutable to the poetry of the hebrew language, and not in the common style of such other bookeſ of the old Testament as are not poeticall ; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookeſ of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue ; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into into meeter, that soe wee may sing the Lords songs, as in our eng'ish tongue soe in such verses as are familiar to an english eare which are commonly metricall : and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, soe neither to sing his poeticall verses in english poeticall metre : men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes ( and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses ) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language : but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; soe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that , but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs , soe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poeticall licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses , noe ; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text .

As for other obiections taken from the difficulty of Ainsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have caule to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translaters of the psalmes into mettre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 chron. 29. 30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not seldom and rare, but very frequent and many times needless, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may iustly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe inioye other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerin as our chief guide the originall, shunning all additions, except such as even the best translators translators of them in prose supply , avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sence. The word ¶ which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew , soe sometime ( though not very often ) it hath been left out , and yet not then , if the sence were not faire without it .

The.

Preface.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarisomes .

Synonimaes wee use indifferently: as folk for people, and Lord for Iehovah, and sometime(though seldom) God for Iehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority ps. 14. with 53. Heb. 1. 6. with psalme 97. 7. Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which(in our owne apprehensiō;) is most genuine & edifying :

Somtime wee have contracted, sometime dilated the same hebrew word , both for the sence and the verse sake : which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrastical addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution : as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods fearers.

Lastly. Because some hebrew words have a more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth sometime expresse, hence wee have done that sometime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasis of it; as לַא mighty God, for God. בָּרוּךְ bumbly blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand; truth and faulfulness for truth. Howbeit, for the verse like wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee sometime say reioyce for shout for joye.

The.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speach, they are such as either the hebrew will unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the sence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our polishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth our verses with the sweetnes of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english metre;
that

Preface.

that soe wee may sing in Sion the Lords songs of pray'e according to his owne will; untill bee take us from hence, and wipe away all our teares , & bid us enter into our masters ioye to sing eternall Halleluiahs .

In Metre

PSALME I

O Blessed man, that in th'advice of wicked doeth not walk:
nor stand in sinners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk.

2 But in the law of Ichovah, is his longing delight:
and in his law doth meditate,
by day and eke by night.

3 And he shall be like to a tree planted by water-rivers:
that in his season yeilds his fruit,
and his leafe never withers.

4 And all he doth, shall prosper well,
the wicked are not so:
but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not ungodly men, rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the sinners with the just,
in their assemblie come.

6 For of the righteous men, the Lord acknowledgeth the way:
but the way of vngodly men,
shall vtterly decay.

PSALM II

VVhy rage the Heathen furiously?
    make vaine things people do;

2 Kings of the earth doe set themselves, Princes consult also:
        with one consent against the Lord,
            and his annoynted one.

3 Let us asunder break their bands, their cords bee from us throwne.

4 Who sits in heav'n shall laugh; the lord will mock them; then will he

5 Speak to them in his ire, and wrath:
    and vex them suddenlie.

6 But I annoynted have my King

Psalme 3

1 A psalme of David when he fled from the face of Absalom his Sonne.

O Lord, how many are my foes?
how many up against me stand?
2 Many say to my soule noe helpe in God for him at any hand.
3 But thou Lord art my shield, my glory and the-uplifter of my head, 4 with voyce to God I cal'd, who from his holy hill me answered.
5 I layd me downe, I slept, I wakt, for Iehovah did me up beare: 6 People that set against me round, ten thousand of them I'le not feare.
7 Arile o Lord, save me my God, for all mine enimies thou hast stroke upon the cheek-bone : & the teeth of the ungodly thou hast broke.
8 This, and all such salvation, belongeth vnto Iehovah;
thy blessing is, and let it be upon thine ewne people. Selah.

Psalme 4

To the cheife Musician on Neginoth,
a psalme of David.

GOD of my justice, when I call answer me: when distrest thou hast inlarg'd me, shew me grace, and heare thou my request.

PSALM iv

2 Ye Sonnes of men, my glory turne to shame how long will you?
how long will ye love vanity,
and still deceit pursue?

3 But know, the Lord doth for himselfe set by his gracious saint :
the Lord will heare when I to him doe poure out my complaint.

4 Be stirred up, but doe not sinne, consider seriouslie:
within your heart upon your bed;
and wholly silent be

5 Let sacrifices of justice, for sacrifices be,
and confidently put your trust on Iehovah doe ye.

6 Many there be that say o who,
will cause us good to see:
the light, Lord, of thy countenance let on us lifred be.

7 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart, more then the time wherein their corne, and also their new wine, have much increased bin.

8 In peace with him I will lye downe, and take my sleepe will I:
For thou Lord mak'st me dwell alone

3 when I thy fingers work, thy Heav'ns, the moone and starres consider

4 which thou hast set. What's wretched man that thou dost him remember?
or what's the Son of man, that thus him visited thou hast?

5 For next to Angells, thou hast him a little lower plac't and hast with glory crowned him, and comely majesty:

PSALM VIII, IX.

6 And on thy works hast given him, lordly authoriy.
7 All hast thou put under his feet;
    all sheep and oxen, yea 8 and beasts of field. Foules of the ayre, and fishes of the sea,
    and all that passe through paths of seas.
9 O Ichovah our Lord, how wondroufly-magnificent is thy name through the world?

Psalme 9

To the chiefe Musician upon Muth-Laben
    a psalme of David.

LORD I'le the prayse, with all my heart;
    thy wonders all proclaime.
2 I will be glad and joy in thee;
    most high, I'le sing thy name.
3 In turning back my foes, they'le fall and perish at thy sight.
4 For thou maintaines my right, & cause:
    In throne sits judging right.
5 Thou t' heathen checkst, & th' wicked stroyd;
    their names raz'd ever aye.
6 Thy ruines, foe, for aye are done;
    thou madst their townes decaye;
    their memory with them is lost.
7 Yet ever sits the Lord:
    his throne to judgement he prepares.
8 With right he'l judge the world:
    he to the folke shall minister judgement in uprightness.

PSALME 1X

9 The Lord is for th'oprest a fort:
    a fort in times of stresse.

10 Who knowes thy name, will trust in thee;
    nor dost thou, Lord forsake,

11 them that thee seek. Psalmes, to the Lord that dwells in Sion, make:

    declare among the folk his works.

12 For blood when he doth seeke,

13 Ichovah, mercy on me have,
    from them that doe me hate marke mine afflictions that arise, thou lift'st me from deaths-gate.

14 That I may tell in the gates of the Daughter of Sion, thy prayses all: and may rejoyce in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk downe into the pit that they had made:
    their owne foot taken is ith'net which privily they layd.

16 By judgement which he executes Iehovah is made knowne:
    the wicked's snar'd in's owne hand work.
        deepe meditation.

17 The wicked shall be turn'd to hell, all lands that God forget.

18 Forgot the needy shall ne're be:
    poores hope ne're faild him yet.

12 Ichovah rise thou up, o God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one be out of memory.

13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one?
he in his heart saith, thou wilt not make inquisition.

14 Thou seest, for thou markst wrong, & spight, with thy hand to repay:
the poore leavs it to thee, thou art of fatherlesse the stay.

15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one.
search thou out his impiety, untill thou findest none.

PSALM X, X.

¶ 16 Ichovah king for ever is,
and to eternall aye:
out of his land the heathen folke are perished away.

¶ 17 The meeke afflicted-mans desire Ichovah, thou dost heare:
thou firmly dost prepare their heart, thou makst attent thine eare.

Psalme 11

To the chiefe Musician a psalme of David.

¶ 1 In the Lord do trust; how then to my soule doe ye say, as doth a litle bird unto your mountaine flye away?

¶ 2 For loe, the wicked bend their bow, their arrows they prepare on string; to shoot in dark at them in heart that upright are.

¶ 3 If that the firme foundationes, what then performe can hee?

¶ 4 The Lord in's holy temple is,
the Lords throne in heaven:

PSALM E Xr, XII.

- 5 The man that truly-righteous is ev'n him the Lord will prove;
his soule the wicked hates, & him that violence doth love.
- 6 Snares, fire, & brimstone he will raine,
ungodly men upon:
and burning tempest; of their cup
shall be their portion.
- 7 For Iehovah that righteous is,
all righteousness doth love:

that speaketh boasting word.
- 4 Thus have they sayd, we with our tongue, prevailing pow're shall get :
are not our lips our owne, for Lord who over us is set?
- 5 Thus saith the Lord, for sighs of them that want, for poor opprest, I'le now arise, from such as puffe, will set him safe at rest.

PSALM Xii, XIII.

6 Pure are the worlds the Lord doth speake:

Psalme 16

Michtam of David

O Mighty God, preserve thou mee, for on thee doe I rest.

2 Thou art my God, vnto the Lord
my soule thou hast profest:
My goodnes reacheth not to thee.

3 But to the Saints upon the earth & to the excellent, whome all my joye is on.

4 They who give gifts to a strange God, their sorrowes multiplye:
their drink oblations of blood offer up will not I.

Neither will I into my lips
the names of them take up.

PSALM XVIII

Psalme 18

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of Dauid, the servant of the Lord, who spake the words of this Song, in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hands of all his enemies, & from the hand of Saule, and hee Sayde,

I L'e dearely love thee, Lord, my strength.

1 The Lord is my rock, and my towre and my deliverer, my God,

I'le trust in him who is my powre,

My shield, & my salvationes-horne,

3 my high-fort; Who is prayse worthy:
I on the Lord will call, so shall
I bee kept from mine enemye.

4 Deathis sorrowes mee encompassed, mee fear'd the floods of ungodlie,

5 Hells pangs beset me round about, the snares of death prevented mee.

6 I in my streights, cal'd on the Lord, and to my God cry'd: he did heare from his temple my voyce, my crye, before him came, unto his eare.

7 Then th' earth shooke, & quak't, & mountaines roots moov'd, & were stird at his ire,

8 Up from his nostrils went a smoak, and from his mouth devouring fire:
By it the coales inkindled were.

9 Likewise the heavens he downe-bow'd, and he descended, & there was under his feet a gloomy cloud.

10 And he on cherub rode, and flew;
yea he flew on the wings of winde.

11 His secret place hee darknes made his

his covert that him round confinde, Dark waters, & thick clouds of skies.

12 From brightnes, that before him was,
his thickned clouds did passe away, hayl-stones and coales of fire did passe.

13 Also Ichovah thundered, within the heavens, the most high likewise his angry-voynce did give,
hayl-stones, and coales of fire did fly.

14 Yea he did out his arrows send,
and bruising he them scattered,
and lightnings hee did multiply, likewise he them discomfited.

15 The waters channels then were seene, and the foundationes of the world appear'd; at thy rebuke, at blast, of the breath of thy nostrils Lord.

16 Hee from above sent hee me took:
me out of waters-great he drew.

17 Hee from mine enemies-strong, & from them which me hated did rescue:
For they were mightyer then I.

18 They mee prevented in the day of my cloudy calamity;
but for me was the Lord a stay.

19 And hee me to large place brought forth:
hee sav'd mee, for he did delight

according as I did aright, According to the clearnesse of my hands, he recompenced mee.

21 For the wayes of the Lord I kept:
nor from my God went wickedlie.

22 For all his judgements mee before:
nor from me put I his decree.

23 With him I upright was, and kept my selfe from mine iniquitie.

24 The Lord hath recompenced mee, after my righteousnes therefore:
according to the cleannesse of my hands that was his eyes before.

25 With mercifull, thou mercifull, with upright thou deales uprightly.

26 With pure thou pure, thou also wilt with foward turne thy selfe awry.

27 For thou wilt save th'afflicted folke:
but wilt the lofty looks supprese.

28 For thou wilt light my lampe: the Lord, my God will lighten my darknesse.

29 For by the I ran through a troupe, and by my God leapt o're a wall.

30 Gods way is perfect: Gods word tryde:
that trust in him hee's shield to all.

31 For who is God except the Lord?
or who a rock, our God except?

32 Its God that girdeth me with strength, and hee doth make my way perfect.

33 Like to the hyndes he makes my feet:
and on my high place maks me stand.

34 Mine armes doe break a bow of brasse;
so well to warre he learnes my hand.

PSALME XVIII.

35 The shield of thy salvation thou furthermore hast given mee:
and thy right-hand hath mee upheld, thy meeknes made mee great to bee.
36 Vnder mee thou makst large my steps, so that mine anckles did not fylde 37 My foes pursu'de I, & them caught:
nor turn'd I till they were destroyd.
38 I wounded them & they could not rise up: under my feet they fell.
39 Because that thou hast girded mee with fortitude to the battel:
Thou hast subdued under mee,
those that did up against me rise.
40 And my foes necks thou gavest mee, that I might wast mine enemyes.
41 They cryde but there was none to save,
to God, yet with no answer meet.
42 I beat them then as dust i'th winde and cast them out as dirt i'th street.

43 And thou from the contentions hast of the people mee set free;
thou of the heathen mad'st me head:
people I knew not shall serve mee.
44 They'le at first hearing me obey:
strangers shall yield themselvs to mee.
45 The strangers shall consume away, and from their closets frighted bee.
46 The Lord lives, and blest be my Rock, let my healths God exalted bee.

PSALM XVIII, XX.

47 It's God for mee that vengeance works, and brings downe people under mee .

48 Mee from mine enemies he doth save:
and above those that 'gainst me went,
thou lift'ſt me up; and thou haſt freed me from the man that's violent.

49 I with confeſſion will therefore unto thee render thanksgiving, o Lord, among the heathen-folk;
and to thy name I'le prayſes ſing:

50 He giveth great deliverance to his King, and doth shew mercy to his annoynted, to David, and to his ſeed eternally.

a psalme of David.

MY God, my God, wherefore hast thou forsaken mee? & why,
art thou so farre from helping mee,
from the words of my cry?

2 O my God, I doe cry by day, but mee thou dost not heare;
and eke by night, & unto mee
no quiet rest is there.

3 Nevertheless thou holy art, who constantly dost dwell, within the thankfull prayses of thy people Israell.

4 Our fore-fathers in thee have put assured confidence:
they trusted have, & thou to them didst give deliverance.

5 Vnto thee they did cry aloud, and were delivered:
in thee they put their confidence,
and were not confounded.

6 But I a worme, & not a man;
of men an opprobri,
and also of the people am despis'd contemprouislie.

7 All they that doe upon mee look,
a scoffe at mee doe make:
they with the lip doe make a shew,
the head in scorne they shake.

PSALM XXII.

8 Upon the Lord he rold himself, let him now rid him quite:
    let him deliver him, because in him he doth delight.

9 But thou art hee that me out of the belly forth didst take:
    when I was on my mothers breasts, to hope thou didst mee make.

10 Vnto thee from the tender-womb committed been have I: yea thou hast been my mighty-God from my mothers belly.

11 Be thou not farre away from mee, for tribulation
    exceeding great is neere at hand, for helper there is none.

12 Mee many buls on every side about have compassed:
    the mighty-buls of Bashan have mee round invironed.

13 They have with their wide-opened-mouths so gaped mee upon;
    like as it were a ravening and a roaring Lion.

14 As water I am poured-out, and all my bones funderd:
    my heart in midst of my bowels,
        is like to wax melted.

15 My strength like a potsherd is dryde;
    and my tongue fast cleaveth

PSALME XXII.

unto my jawes, & thou hast brought me to the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compast me abour;
th<sup>e</sup> assembly me beset of the wicked; they pierced through my hands, also my feet.

17 My bones I may them number all:
they lookt, they did me view.

18 My cloths among them they did part:
and lot for my coat threw.

19 But thou Lord be not far, my strength, to help me hasten thou.

20 My soule from sword, my darling from the powre of dogs rescue.

21 And from the mouth of the Lion give me salvation free:
for thou from hornes of Vnicornes answer hast given mee.

22 Thy name, I will declare to them that Brethren are to mee:
in midst of congregation
I will give prayse to thee.

(3)

23 Yee that doe feare the Lord prayse him, all Jacobs seed prayse yee, him glorify, & dread him all yee Israels seed that bee.

24 For he the poors affliction loathes not, nor doth despise; nor hides his face from him, but heats when unto him hee cryes.

PSALM XXII, XXIII.

25 Concerning thee shall be my prayse in the great assembly:
before them that him reverence performe my vowes will I.

26 The meek shall eat & be suffic'd: Iehovah prayse shall they that doe him seek: your heart shall live unto perpetuall aye.

27 All ends of th'earth remember shall and turne unto the Lord:
and thee all heathen-families to worship shall accord.

28 Because unto Iehovah doth the kingdome appertaine:
and he among the nations is ruler Soveraigne.

29 Earths-fat-ones, eat & worship shall:
all who to dust descend, (though none can make alive his soule) before his face shall bend.

30 With service a posterity him shall attend upon:
to God it shall accounted bee
a generation.

31 Come shall they, & his righteousness by them declar'd shall bee, unto a people yet unborne, that done this thing hath hee.

23 A Psalme of David.

doth cause mee downe to lie:
To waters calme me gently leads
- 3 Restore my soule doth hee:
he doth in paths of rightheousnes:
for his names sake leade mee.
- 4 Yea though in valley of deathis shade:
I walk, none ill I'le feare:
because thou art with mee, thy rod,
and staffe my comfort are.
- 5 For mee a table thou hast spread,
in presence of my foes:
thou dost annoynt my head with oyle,
my cup it over-flowes.

PSALME XXV.

I Lift my soule to thee o Lord.
My God I trust in thee, let mee not be ashamed: nor let my foes joy over mee.

3 Yea, all that wait on thee shall not,
be fill'd with shamefullnes:
but they shall be ashamed all,
who without cause transgresse.

4 Thy wayes, Iehovah, make mee know, thy paths make mee discerne.

5 Cause mee my stcps to order well, in thy truth, & mee learne,
For thou God of my saving health,
on thee I wait all day.

6 Thy bowels, Lord, & thy mercyes minde; for they are for aye.

7 Sinneres of my youth remember not,
neither my trespasses:
after thy mercy minde thou mee
o Lord for thy goodnes.

8 Good and upright God is, therefore will sinners teach the way.

9 The meek he'lle guide in judgement: & will teach the meek his way.

10 Iehovahs paths they mercy are,
all of them truth also;
to them that keep his covenant, and testimonies do.

11 For thy names sake o Iehovah, freely doe thou remitt

mine owne perverse iniquitie:
because that great is it.

12 Who fears the Lord, him hee will teach the way that he shall chuse.

13 his soule shall dwell at ease; his seed as heirs the earth shall vse.

14 The secret of God is with those that doe him reverence:
and of his covenant he them will give intelligence.

15 Mine eyes continually are upon Iehovah set:
for it is hee that will bring forth
my feet out of the net.

16 Vnto me-wards turne thou thy face, and on mee mercy shew:
because I solitary am afflicted poore also.

17 My hearts troubles inlarged are;
from my distresse me bring.

18 See mine affliction,& my paine; and pardon all my sin.

19 Mark my foes; for they many are,
and cruelly mee hate,

20 My soule keep,free mee;nor let mee be sham'd,who on thee wait.

21 Let soundnes,& uprightnesse keep mee: for I trust in thee.

22 Israel from his troubles all, o God, doe thou set free.

25 A psalm of david.

P S A L M E xxvii, xxviii.

IVdge mee, o Lord, for I have walkt in mine integrity:
and I have trusted in the Lord,
therefore slyde shall not I.
2 Examine mee, Lord, & mee prove:
my reins, & my heart try.
3 For thy grace is before mine eys;
and in thy truth walk I.
4 I sat not with vaine men, nor goe with men themselves that hide.
5 Evill mens company I hate:
nor will with vile abide.
6 In cleannessse, Lord, I'le wash mine hands, so I'le thine altar round:
7 That I may preach with thankfull-voynce, and all thy prayses sound.
8 The habitation of thy house, Lord, dearly love doe I,
the place and tabernacle of thy glorious majesty.
9 My soule with sinners gather not,
with men of blood my life.
10 In whose hand 's guile, in whose right hand bribery is full rife.
11 Redeeme, & pitty mee; for I'le walk in mine uprightnessse.
12 My foot stands right: in th' assembly
I will Ichovah blesse.
27 A Psalme of David.

THe Lord my light, & my heath is, what shall make me dismaye?

PSALM XXVII.

The Lord is my lifes-strength, of whom should I then be afrayd?

2 When wicked men, mine enemies, and my foes in battel;
against mee come, to eate my flesh, themselves stumbled & fell.

3 If that an hoast against mee camp, my heart undaunted is:
if war against mee should arise,
I am secure in this.

4 One thing of God I asked have,
which I will still request:
that I may in the house of God,
all dayes of my life rest:
To see the beauty of the Lord,
and in his Temple seeke.

5 For in his tent in th'evill-day, hidden hee will mee keeper: Hee will mee hide in secrecy of his pavillion:
and will mee highly lift upon the rocks-munition.

6 Moreover at this-time my head lifted on high shall bee, above mine enemies, who doe about encompasse mee.
Therefore in's tent I'le sacrifice, of joye an offering,
unto Iehovah, sing will I, yea, I will prayses sing.

7 When as I with my voyce doe cry, mee, o Ichovah, heare,
have mercy also upon mee,
and unto mee answer.

8 When thou didst say, seek yee my face, my heart sayd unto thee,
thy countenance, o Ichovah,
it shall be sought by mee.

9 Hide not thy face from mee, nor off in wrath thy servant cast: God of my health, leave, leave not mee,
my helper been thou hast.

10 My father & my mother both though they doe mee forsake, yet will Ichovah gathering unto himselfe me take.

11 Ichovah, teach thou mee the way, and be a guide to mee
in righteous path, because of them that mine observers bee.

12 Give mee not up unto the will of my streight-enemies:
for witnessse false against me stand,
and breath out cruelties.

13 I should haue fainted, had not I believed for to see,

lest thou be dumb from mee & I be like them downe to pit that go.

2 Heare thou the voyce of my request for gracie, when unto thee I cry: when I lift up mine hands unto thine Oracle of Sanctity.

3 With ill men draw me not away, with workers of unrighteousnes, that with their neighbours peace doe speak,
but in their hands is wickednes.

4 Give thou to them like to their works and like the evill of their deeds:
give them like to their handy-works,
and render unto them their meeds.

5 Because unto Iehovahs work they did not wise-attention yeild, neither unto his handy work, them he will wast, but not up-build.

6 The Lord be blest, for he hath heard the voyce of my requests for grace.

7 God is my strength, my shield, in him unto the Lord doe yee ascribe

2 Vnto the Lord doe yee ascribe

3 The mighty voyce of Iehovah upon the waters is:
the God of glory thundereth, God on great waters is.

4 Ichovahs voyce is powerfull, Gods voyce is glorious,

5 Gods voyce breaks Cedars:yea God breaks Cedars of Lebanon.

6 He makes them like a calsc to skip:

PSALM xxix, xxx.

*the mountaine Lebanon, and like to a young Vnicorn

- 7 Gods voyce divides the flames of fire.
- 8 Iehovahs voyce doth make the desert shake: the Lord doth cause the Cadesh-desert shake.
- 9 The Lords voyce makes the hindes to calve, and makes the forrest bare:
and in his temple every one his glory doth declare.
- 10 The Lord sate on the flouds: the Lord for ever sits as King.
- 11 God to his folk gives strength: the Lord his folk with peace blessing.

IEHOV<sup>A</sup>H, I will thee extoll!, for thou hast lift up mee;
and over mee thou hast not made my foes joyfull to bee.

- 2 O Lord my God, to thee I cryde and thou hast made mee whole.
- 3 Out of the grave, o Iehovah, thou hast brought up my soule:
Thou mad'st mee live, I went not downe

(yee his Saints) & give thanks when yee his holynes record.
- 5 For but a moment in his wrath;

life in his love doth stay:
weeping may lodge with us a night but joye at break of day.

6 I sayd in my prosperity,
I shall be moved never.

7 Lord by thy favour thou hast made my mountaine stand fast ever:
Thou hidst thy face, I troubled was.

8 I unto thee did cry,
o Lord: also my humble suit unto the Lord made I.

9 What gaine is in my blood; when I
into the pit goe downe?
shall dust give glory unto thee?
shall it thy truth make knowne?

10 Doe thou mee o Iehovah,heare, and on mee mercy have:
Iehovah,o bee thou to mee
an helper me to save.

11 Thou into dancing for my sake converted hast my sadnes:
my sackcloth thou unloosed hast,
and girded me with gladnes:

12 That sing to thee my glory may,
and may not silent bee:
o Lord my God,I will give thanks for evermore to thee.

PSALM xxxr.

1 N thee, o Lord, I put my trust, let me be shamed never:
according to thy righteousness
o doe thou mee deliver.

2 Bow downe to mee thine care, with speed let mee deliverance have:
be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence mee to save.

3 Because thou unto mee a rock and my fortresse wilt bee:
therefore for thy names sake doe thou, leade mee & guide thou mee.

4 Doe thou mee pull out of the net, which they have for mee layd so privily: because that thou art to mee a sure ayd.

5 Into thy hands my spirit I reposing doe commit:
Iehovah God of verity,
thou hast redeemed it.

6 I hated them that have regard to lying vanity:

7 but I in God trust. I'le be glad,
and joy in thy mercy:
Because thou hast considered
my afflicting distresse;
thou hast my soule acknowledged in painfull anguishes;

8 And thou hast not inclosed mee within the enemies hand:
thou mad'st my feet within the place of liberty to stand.

9 Have mercy upon mee, o Lord, for in distresse am I,
with grief mine eye consumed is,
my soule & my belly.

10 For my life with grief & my years with sighs are consumed:
because of my sin, my strength failes,
and my bones are wasted.

11 To all my foes I was a scorne, chiefly my neighbours to;
a feare to freinds: they that saw mee without, did flye me fro.

12 I am forgot as a dead man that's out of memory:
and like a vessel that is broke ev'n such a one am I.

13 Because that I of many men
the flandering did heare, round about me on every side
there was exceeding feare:
While as that they did against mee counsell together take,
they craftily have purposed my life away to make.

14 But o Iehovah, I in thee my confidence have put even for thy mercy sake.

17 Let me not be ashame'd, o Lord, for cal'd on thee I have:
let wicked men be sham'e'd, let them be silent in the grave.

19 Let lying lips be silenced, that against men upright doe speak such things as grcious are,
in pride, & in despight.

19 How great 's thy goodnes, thou for the that feare thee hast hidden:
which thou work'st for them that thee trust,
before the Sonnes of men.

20 Thou in the secret of thy face, shalt hide them from mans pride:
in a pavillion, from the strife of tongues, thou wilt them hide.

21 O let Iehovah blessed be;
for he hath shewed mee
his loving kindnes wonderfull in a fenced-cittie.

22 For I in hast sayd, I am cast from the sight of thine eyes:
yet thou heardist the voyce of my suit,

2   O blessed is the man to whom the Lord imputes not sin:

        that guile is not therein.
3 When I kept silence then my bones, began to weare away,

        continuing all the day.
4 For day & night thy hand on mee,

4 I sought, God heard, who gave from all my fears deliverance.
5 Him they beheld, & lightned were,
nor sham'd were their faces.
6 This poore man cry'd, the Lord him heard, and freed from all distresse.
7 His camp about them round doth pitch
the Angell of the Lord;
who doe him feare; and to them doth deliverance afford.
8 O tast, also consider yee, that God is good: o blest, that man is ever whose hope doth for safety in him rest.
9 O stand in feare of Ichovah, his holy ones who bee.
because that such as doe him feare not any want shall see.

10 The Lions young doe suffer lack,
and suffer hungering:
but they that seek Iehovah, shall not want any good thing.

11 I will you teach to feare the Lord:
come children hark to mee.

12 Who is the man that willeth life:
and loves good dayes to see?

13 Thy tongue from evill, & thy lips from speaking guile keep thou.

14 Depart from evill & doe good:
seek peace, and it follow.

15 Vpon the men that righteous are the Lord doth set his eye:
and likewise he doth bow his eare
when unto him they cry.

16 Iehovahs face is set against them that doe wickedly:
that he of them from off the earth
may cut the memory.

17 They cry'd, God heard, & set them free, from their distresses all.

18 To broken hearts the Lord is neere, and contrite save he shall.

19 The just mans sorrows many are,
from all God sets him free.

20 Hee kepereth all his bones, that none of them shall broken bee.

21 Evill shall certainly bring death the wicked man upon:

and

and those that hate the just shall come to desolation.

22 The soules of them that doe him serue, Iehovah doth redeeme:
nor any shall be desolate, that put their trust in him.

35 A psalme of David.

P Lead, i ord, with them that with me plead:
fight against them that fight with mee.

2 Of shidle & buckler take thou hold, stand up my helper for to bee.
3 Draw out the speare & stop the way
'gainst them that my pursuers bee:
and doe thou lay unto my soule
I am salvation unto thee.

4 Let them confounded be, & sham'd, that seek my soule how they may spill:
let them be turned back & sham'd that in their thoughts devise mine ill.

5 As chaffe before the wind, let them be, & Gods Angell them driving.

6 Let their way dark & slippery bee, and the Lords Angelii them chasing.

7 For in a pit without a cause, they hidden have for me a net:
which they without a cause have digg'd that they there in my soule may get.

8 Let unknowne ruin come on him, and let his net that he doth hide, himselfe insnare: let him into the very same destruction slyde.

PSALM xxxv.

9 My soule shall in the Lord be glad:
in his silvation joyfull bee

10 And all my bones shall also say, o Lord, who is like unto thee?
Who from the stronger then himselfe the poore afflicted settest free:
the poore afflicted & needy,
from such as spoylers of him bee.

11 False witnessses did up arise:
what I knew not they charg'd on mee.

12 Evill for good they mee repay'd, whereby my soule might spoyled bee,

13 But I, whien they were sick, was cloath'd with sackcloath, & I afflicted my soule with fasting, & my pray'r into my bosom returned.

14 I walked as if he had been my neere freind or mine owne brother:
I heavily bow'd downe as one that mourneth for his owne mother.

15 But they in mine adversity rejoyced, & they gathered themselves together: yea abjects themselves against mee gathered,
And I was ignorant hereof;
and they unceasantly mee teare,

16 With hypocrites, mockers in feasts;
at me their teeth they gnashing were.

17 How long o Lord wilt thou look on?
my soule from their destructions,

o doe thou set at liberty, mine only one from the Lions.

18 I freely will give thanks to thee within the congregation great:
and I thy prayses will set forth where there be many people met.

19 Those that are wrongfully my foes, let them not rejoice over mee:
neither let them wink with the eye,
that are my haters causlesly.

20 Because that they doe not speak peace:
but in their thoughts they doe invent deceitfull matters against them that in the land for peace are bent.

21 Gaint me they op'ned their mouths wide, & sayd,ah,ah our eye it saw.

22 Thou saw'ft it (Lord)hold not thy peace:
Lord,from me be not far away.

23 Stirre up & wake to my judgement, my God & my Lord, to my plea.

24 After thy justice,judge me,Lord my God,lest or'e me joy should they.

25 Let them not say within their hearts, aha,our soules desire have wee:
we now have swallowed him up,
o let them never say of mee.

26 Sham'd let them be & confounded joyntly,who at my hurt are glad:
let them that 'gainst me magnify, with shame & dishonour be clad.

27 Let them for joy shout,& be glad that favour doe my righteous causes yea, let them say continually,

the servant of the Lord.

iniquity & guile:

He to be wise, to doe good leaves.

4 He mischief plotts on's bed, he sets himselfe in way not good:
he hath not ill hated.

5 Thy mercy (Lord) in heaven is,
to clouds thy faithfullnes.

6 Thy judgements a great deep, like great mountains thy righteousness:
Thou savest man & beast, o Lord.

37 A Psalme of David.

F Ret not thy selfe because of thosē that evill workers bee, nor envious bee against the men that work iniquitie.

2 For like unto the grasse they shall be cut downe, suddenly:
and like unto the tender herb they withering shall dye.
3 Vpon the Lord put thou thy trust, and bee thou doing good,
so shalt thou dwell within the land,
and sure thou shalt have food.
4 See that thou set thy hearts delight also upon the Lord, and the desyres of thy heart to thee he will afford.
5 Trust in the Lord: & hee'l it work, to him commit thy way.

PSALM xxxvii.

6 As light thy justice hee'l bring forth, thy judgement as noone day.
7 Rest in Iehovah, & for him with patience doe thou stay:
fret not thy selfe because of him who prospers in his way, Nor at the man, who brings to passe the crafts he doth devise.
8 Cease ire, & wrath leave: to doe ill thy selfe fret in no wise.
9 For evil doers shall be made by cutting downe to fall:
but those that wayt upon the Lord,
the land inherit shall.

10 For yet a litle while, & then the wicked shall not bee:
yea, thou shait diligently mark his place, & it not see.
11 But meek ones the inheritance shall of the earth posseſſe:
also they shall themselves delight in multitude of peace.
12 The wicked plotts against the just,
gnashing at him his teeth.
13 The Lord shall laugh at him: because his day coming he seeth.
14 The wicked have drawne out their sword, & bent their bowe have they,
to cast the poor & needy downe,
to kill th'upright in way.

P S A L M E xxx viii.

15 Their sword shall enter their owne heart, their bowes shall broken bee.
16 The just mans little, better is then wickeds treasurie.
17 For th'armes of wicked shall be broke:
the Lord the just doth stay.
18 The Lord doth know upright mens dayes:
and their lot is for aye.
19 Neither shall they ashamed bee in any time of ill:
and when the dayes of famine come,
they then shall have their fill.
20 But wicked,&c foes of the Lord as lambs fat shall decay:
they shall consume:yea into smoake
they shall consume away.

21 The man ungodly borroweth, but he doth not repay:
but he that righteous is doth shew mercy,& gives away.
22 For such as of him blessed bee,
the earth inherit shall,
and they that of him cursed are,
by cutting downe shall fall.
23 The foot-steps of a godly man they are by Iehovah established: & also hee delighteth in his way.
24 Although he fall,yet shall he not be utterly downe cast:

because Iehovah with his hand

25 I have been young & now am old; yet have I never seen

the just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

26 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.

27 Depart from evill, & doe good:
and ever dwell at rest.

28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forsakes not hee;
kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.

29 The just inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.

30 The just mans mouth wisdome doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.

31 The law of his God is in's heart:
none of his steps slideth.

32 The wicked watcheth for the just,
and him to slay seeketh.

33 Iehovah will not such a one relinquish in his hand, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.

        like to a green-bay-tree.
36 Neverthelesse he past away, and loe, then was not hee;
    moreover I did seek for him,
        but found hee could not bee.
37 Take notice of the perfect man, and the upright attend:
    because that unto such a man peace is his latter end.
38 But such men that transgressors are together perish shall:
    the latter end shall be cut off of the ungodly all, 39 But the salvation of the just doth of Ichovah come:
    he is their strength to them in times

Psalme 38

A psalme of David,

PSALM xxxviii.

3 There is no soundnes in my flesh, because thine anger I am in:
nor is there any rest within my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 Because that mine iniquityes ascended are above my head:
like as an heavy burden, they
to heavy upon me are layd.

5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be:
my foolishnes doth make it so.

6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe, all the day long I mourning goe.

7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd:
& in my flesh is no soundnes.

8 I'me weak & broken sore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlessness.

9 All my desire's before thee, Lord; nor is my groaning hid from thee.

that seek my hurt, they mischief speak,
And all day long imagin guile,

13 But as one deaf, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.

14 Thus was I as man that heares not,

Psalme 39

To the chief musician, even to Ieduthun,
a Psalme of David.

I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue: I'le keep my mouth with bit, while I
the wicked am among.
2 With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.
3 Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,

inkindled in me was the fire;
then spake I with my tongue.

4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne, that what a momentany thing
        I am I may discerne.

5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span,

7 And now, o Lord what wayt I for?
    my hope is upon thee.

8 Free me from all my trespasses:

Psalm 40.

To the chief musician, a psalme
of David.

VVith expectation for the Lord
I wayted patiently,
and hee inclined unto mee.
also he heard my cry.

2 He brought mee out of dreadfull-pit, out of the miery clay:
and set my feet upon a rock,
hee stablished my way.

3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto:
many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.

4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide:

after thee panting looks.

2 For God, even for the liuing God, my soule it thirsteth sore:

Psalme 44

To the chief musician, for the sonnes-

PSALM xliiv.

V VEE with our cares have heard, o God,
our fathers have us told,
what works thou diddest in their dayes,
in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drove the heathen out, and them thou planted hast;
how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword
the lands possession, neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:
But thy right hand, thine arme also,
thy countenances light,
because that of thine owne goodwill thou didst in them delight.

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the same indure:
doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a horne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have,
upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou sav'd, and put our foes to shame.

10 Vs from before the enemy thou makest back recoule:
 likewise they which our haters bee,
 for themselves us doe spoyle.

11 Thou hast us given like to sheep to slaughter that belong:
 also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.

12 Thou dost thy people set to sale whereby no wealth doth rise:
 neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.

13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou doest us expos'e, a scorne we are & mocking stock,
 to them that us inclose.

14 Among the heathen people thou also among the nations, at us their heads they shake.

17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee:
neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.

18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;

19 Though us thou brake in dragons place, and hid us in deaths shade.

20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretcht to a strange God our hands:

21 Shall not God search this out? for hee hearts secrets understands.

22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd:
counted as sheep to slay.

23 Awake, why sleepst thou, Lord? arise, cast us not off for aye.

24 Thy countenance away from us o wherfore dost thou hide?
of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.

25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust:
to earth cleaves our belly.

25 Rise for our help, & us redeeme, because of thy mercy.

Psalme 49

To the chief musician a psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

H Eare this all people, all give eare that dwell the world all o're.

2 Sonnes both of low, & higher men, joyntly both rich & poore.

3 My mouth it shall variety of wisedome be speaking:
and my hearts meditation shall be of understanding.

4 Vnto a speech proverbiall
I will mine eare incline;
I will also upon the Harp open my dark doctrine.

5 Why should I be at all afayrd in dayes that evill bee:
when that my heeles iniquity about shall compasse mee.

6 Those men that make their great estates

PSALM xl ix.

9 That he should still for ever live and never see the pit.

10 For he doth see that wise man dye, the foo'le and brutish too to perish, & their rich estate to others leave they doo.

11 They think their houses are for aye to generations all their dwelling places, & their lands by their owne names they call.

12 Neverthelesse, in honour man, abideth not a night:

the beasts that perish quite.

13 This their owne way their folly is;
yet whatsoe're they say,
their successors that follow them doe well approve. Selah.

14 Like sheep so are they layd in grave, death shall them feed upon;
& th' upright over them in morn shall have dominion.

And from the place where they doe dwell,
the beauty which they have,
shall utterly consume away in the devouring grave.

Psalme 58

To the chief musician, Alataschib,

1 Oe yee o congregation, indeed speak righteousnes?
and o yee soues of earthly men, doe yee judge uprightnes?
2 Yea you in heart will working be injurious-wickednes;
and in the land you will weigh out your hands violentnes.
3 The wicked are estranged from as soone as ever they are borne;

uttering lies are they.
4 Their poyson's like serpents poyson:
they like deafe Aspe, her eare his voice she will not heare.

6 Within their mouth doe thou their teeth

PSALM viii, ix.

7 As waters let them melt away,

P S A L M E Ix ix.

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim,
A psalme of David.

THe waters in unto my soule are come, o God me save.

2 I am in muddy deep funk downe, where I no standing have:
Into deep waters I am come,
where floods mee overflow.

3 I of my crying weary am,
my throat is dried so;
Mine eye's faile: I wayt for my God.

4 They that have hated mee without a cause, then mine heads haire they more in number bee:
Also mine enemies wrongfully they are that would mee slay, mighty they are; then I restor'd what I took not away.

5 O God thou knowst my foolishnes;
my sin's not hid from thee.

6 Who wayt on thee, Lord God of hoasts, let not be shamed for mee:
O never suffer them, who doe for thee inquiry make,
o God of Israell, to be confounded for my sake,

7 By reason that I for thy sake, reproach have suffered:
confusion my countenance hath overcovered.

PSALM lxix.

8 I as a stranger am become unto my bretherren;
and am an aliant unto my mothers childeeren.

9 For of thy house the zeale me hath up eaten: every one who thee reproach, their reproaches are fallen mee upon

10 In fests, I wept & spent my soule, this was reproach to mee.

11 And I my garment sackcloth made:
yet mfull their proverb bee.

12 They that do sit within the gate, against mee speak they do;
unto the drinkers of strong drink,
I was a song also.

13 But I in an accepted time to thee Lord, make my prayr: mee Lord, in thy salvations truth,
in thy great mercy heare.

(3)

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and mee from sinking keep:
let mee be freed mine haters from,
and out of waters deep.

15 O'reflow mee let not water floods, nor mee let swallow up
the deep, also let not the pitt her mouth upon mee shut.

16 Iehovah heare thou mee, for good is thy benignity:

turne unto mee according to greatnes of thy mercy.

17 And hide not thou thy countenance from thy servant away;
because that I in trouble am;
heare me without delay.

18 O draw thou nigh unto my soule, doe thou it vindicate;
give mee deliverance, because of them that doe mee hate.

19 Thou hast knowne my reproach, also my shame, & my disgrace:
mine adversaryes every one they are before thy face.

20 Reproach mine heart brake, I was griev'd:
for some me to bemonie
I sought, but none there was; & for comforters, but found none.

21 Moreover in stead of my meate unto mee gall they gave;
and in me thirst they vineger for drink made me to have.

22 Their table set before their face, to them become a snare:
and that let be a trap, which should have been for their welfare.

23 And let their eyes be darkened, that they may never see:
their loynes also with trembleing to shake continuallee.

PSALM Ix ix.

24 Poure out thine ire on them, let seize on them thine anger fell.
25 Their Pallace let be desolate:
none in their tents let dwell.
26 Because they him doe persecute on whom thy stroke is found:
also they talk unto the grief of them whom thou dost wound.
27 Thou unto their iniquity iniquity doe add:
into thy righteousnes for them let entrance none be had.
28 Out of the book of the living o doe thou them forth blot, and amongst them that righteous are be written let them not.

(5)

29 But Lord, I<sup>e</sup>me poote & sorrowfull:
let thy health lift me hy.
30 With song I<sup>e</sup>le prayse the name of God:
with thanks him magnify.
31 Vnto Iehovah this also shall be more pleasing far, then any oxe or bu'lock young,
that horn'd & hoofed are.
32 This thing when as they shall behold, then shall be glad the meek;
also their heart shall ever live that after God doe seek.
33 For the Lord hears the poore,nor doth despise whom he hath bound.

P S A L M E I x i x , I x x .

34 Let heav'n, earth, seas & all therin

35 For God will Iudahs cityes build, and Sion he will save:
    that they may dwell therin, & may 36 The seed also of his servants

Psalme 70

To the chief musician, a psalme to bring to remembrance.

O GOD, to rescue mee,
    Lord, to mine help, make hast.
2 Let them that after my soule seek asham'd be, & abashit:
    Turnd back & sham'd let them
        that in my hurt delight.
3 Turnd back let them ha, ha, that say, their shame for to requite.
4 Let all those that thee seek joy, & be glad in thec:
    let such as love thy health say still,
        magnifyde let God bee.
5 Make hast to me Lord, for I poore am & needy:
    thou art mine ayd, & my helper
        o Lord, doe not tarry.

Psalme 71

PSALM lxxi.

IEHOVAH, I for safety doe betake my selfe to thee:
o let me not at any time
put to confusion bee.
2 Me rescue in thy righteousness, let me deliverance have:
to me doe thou incline thine eare,
also doe thou me save.
3 Be thou my dwelling Rock, whereto
I always may resort:
thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou my Rock & Fort.
4 Out of the hand of the wicked my God, deliver mee,
out of the hand of the unjust,
leaven'd with crueltie.
5 For thou o God, Iehovah art mine expectation:
and thou art hee whom from my youth
my trust is set upon:
6 Thou hast upheld mee from the womb, thou art he that tookst mee out of my mothers belly; still my prayse shall be of thee.
(2)
7 To many I a wonder am but thou my refuge strong.
8 Let my mouth fill'd be with thy prayse, & honour all day long.
9 Within the time of elder age o cast me not away,

and doe not thou abandon me when my strength doth decay.

¶ Because they that be enemyes to me, against me spake, and they that for my soule lay-wayt,
counsell together take.

Saying, God hath forgotten him:
doe yee him now pursue,
and apprehend him, for there is ¶ Depart not farre from mee, o God,

The adversaryes of my soule, let them ashamed bee:
Let them consumed be, let them both with reproach & dishonour, that for my hurt wayted.

(3)

But I with patience will wayt on thee continuallee, and I will adde yet more & more to all the prayse of thee.

My mouth it shall thy righteousnes, and thy salvation show
from day to day, for of the same no number doe I know.

In the strong might of God the Lord
goe on a long will I:
I'le mention make of thy justice, yea ev'n of thine only.

PSALM Ixx i.

17 From my youth up o mighty God, thou hast instructed mee:
and hitherto I have declar'd the wonders wrought by thee.

18 And now unto mine elder age, and hoary head, o God, doe not forsake mee: till I have thy power showne abroad, and unto every one

that shall hereafter be to come, thy strong dominion.

19 Thy righteousness o God, it doth reach up on high also,

Lord who's like thee unto?

20 Thou who hast caused mee to see afflictions great & sore, shalt mee revive, & me againe from depthis of earth restore.

21 Thou shalt my greatness multiply & comfort me alwayes.

22 Also with tuned Psaltery
I will shew forth thy prayse, O thou my God, I will sing forth to thee mine Harp upon, thy verity & faishfullnes, o Israels Holy-one.

23 My lips with shouting shall rejoice
when I shall sing to thee:

unto the people bring forth peace:
the little hills shall bring the same,
by executing righteousness.

4 Poore of the people he shall judge, and children of the needy save;
& he in pecces shall break downe each one that them oppressed have.

5 They shall thee feare, while Sun & moon

Psalme 73

A psalme of Asaph.

Truly to Irael God is good;
to men of a cleane heart.

- 2 But my feet almost slipt, my steps aside did well nigh starr.
- 3 For I was envious at the fooles,
    in peace to see the ill.
- 4 For in their death no ban 's there are,
    but firme their strength is still.
- 5 Like other meane men they are not in toylesome misery, nor are they stricken with like plagues as other mortals bee.
- 6 Therefore doth pride like to a chaine encompasse them about,
    and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughout.
- 7 Within the fatnes which they have extended are their eyes:
    greater prosperitie they have then their hearts can devise.
- 8 Corrupt they are, & wickedly speak guile: proudly they talk.
- 9 Against the heav'ns they set their mouth, their tongue through th'earth doth walk.

10 There-

PSALM E lxx iii.

10 Therefore his people unto them have hither turned in,
and waters out of a full cup wrung out to them have been.

11 And they have sayd, how can it be that God this thing should know, & is there in the highest one knowledge hereof also?

12 Loe, these are the ungodly ones who have tranquillity:
within the world they doe increase in rich ability.

13 Surely in vaine in purity cleansed my heart have I.

14 And hands in innocence have washt, for plagu'd am I dayly:
And every morning chastered.

15 If I think thus to ray, thy childrens generation
loe then I should be ray;

16 And when this poynt to understand casting I did devise,
the matter too laborious appeared in mine eyes.

17 Vntil unto the sanctuary of God I went, & then I prudently did understand the last end of these men.

18 Surely in places slippery

PSALM lxxiii.

these men thou placed hast:
and into desolations
thou dost them downward cast.

19 As in a moment, how are they brought to destruction?
how are they utterly consum'd with sad confusion?

20 Like to a dreame when as a man awaking doth arise,
so thou o God, when thou awakst their Image shalt despise.

21 My heart thus was leaven'd with grief, prickt were my reins by mee:

22 So foolish was I, & knew not,
like a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless continually before thee I doe stand: thou hast upheld mee stedfastly also by my right hand.

24 Thou with thy prudent counsell shalt guidance unto mee give:
up afterward also thou shalt to glory mee receive.

25 In heavn above but thee alone who is it that I have?
and there is nothing upon earth
besides thee that I crave.

26 This flesh of mine, my heart also doth faile me altogether:
but God the strength is of my heart,

and

and portion mine for ever.

27 For loe, they that are far from thee utterly perish shall:
those who a whoring goe from thee thou hast destroyed all.
28 But as for mee, for mee it's good in God the Lord I put my trust, all thy works to declare.

Psalme 74

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off,
why doth thy rage indure?
for ever smoaking out against the sheep of thy pasture?
2 Thy congregation call to minde of old by thee purchast:
the rod of thine inheritance which thou redeemed hast,
This mount Sion wherin thou dwelst.
3 Lift up thy foot on hye, unto the desolations
of perpetuity:
Thy foe within the Sanctuary hath done all lewd designes.
4 Amidst thy Church thy foes doe roare:
their Banners set for signes.
5 The man that axes on thick trees did lift up had renowne:
6 But now with axe & maules at once, her carv'd works they beat downe.

PSALM lxx iv.

7 Thy sanctuaryes into fire they cast, the dwelling place of thy name downe unto the ground prophanely they did raze.
8 Let us together them destroy,
thus in their hearts they sayd: Gods Synagogues throughout the land all in the flames they layd.
9 Our signes we see not, there's no more a Prophet us among:
nor with us any to be found that understands how long.
10 How long shall the oppressing foe o mighty God, defame?
thine enemy for evermore shall he blasphem thy name?
11 Why dost thou thus withdraw thine hand,
the right hand of thy strength?
out of thy bosom o doe thou draw it forth to the length.
12 Because the mighty God hath been from ancient time my King, in middest of the earth he is salvation working.
13 Thou diddest by thy mighty powre devide the sea asunder:
the Dragons heads in peeces thou didst break the waters under.
14 The heads of the Leviathan thou into peeces brake:

thou Sun prepar'ſt, & light.

17 Thou all the borders of the earth hast constituted fast:
the summer & the winter cold

the congregration of thy poore

20 Vnto thy cov'nant have respect:
because the dark places of th'earth with habitations are full of furiousnes.

21 O let not the oppressed one returne away with shame:
o let the poor & needy one

Psalme 75

To the chief musician Altaschith, psalme or song of Asaph.

O GOD, to thee doe we give thanks,
thanks give we unto thee:
& that thy name is neere at hand;
thy wonders shew to bee,

2 When I th'assembly shall receive uprightly judge I will.

2 Th'earth & its dwellers all do melt:
I stay its pillars still,
4 I did unto the foolish say, deale not so foolishly:
also unto the wicked ones,
lift not the horne on hye.

5 Lift yee not up your horne on high:
with stiffned neck speak not,

6 For neither from East, West, nor South, promotion can be got.

7 But God is judge: he sets up one, another downe doth tread.

8 For in the Lords hand is a cup, also the wine is red:
It's full of mixture, & thereout he poures: but on earth all the wicked ones the dregs therof both strain, & drink them shall.

7 For ever will the Lord cast off?
& pleasd will he not bee?
8 His tender mercy is it ceast

12 I'll muse also of all thy works, & of thy doings talk.

PSALM Ixxvii, Ixx viii.

13 Within the temple is thy way,
o God, where thou dost walk.
What god so great as our God is?
14 Works wonderfull that are thou God hast done; among the folk thou dost thy strength declare.
15 Those that thy people are thou hast with thine owne arme set free, of Iacob also of Ioseph
the childeeren that bee.      Selah.

16 Thee did the waters see, o God, thee did the waters see:
they were afraid, the deeps also could not but troubled bee.
17 With waters were the clouds pour'd forth, the skies a sound out sent:
also thine arrows on each side abroad dispersed went.
18 Thy thunders voyce in heaven was:
the world illuminate thy lightnings did, the earth also trembled & shook hereat.
19 Thy wayes ith sea, thy paths & steps unkowne, are in the deep.
20 By Moses & by Arons hand thou ledst thy folk like sheep.

are to be borne might know; that they might rise up & the same unto their children show.
7 That they upon the mighty God their confidence might set:
and Gods works & his commandment

PSALM lxxviii.

10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk in his law they denyde: 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot, that he to them descryde.
12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers sight:
in Egipts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
13 He did devide the sea, also he cauſd them through to passe:
& he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
14 With cloud by day, with fire all night 15 he led them; Rocks he clave in wildernes, as from great deeps drink unto them he gave.
16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock ſtreames he did bring also, & caused water to run downe like as the rivers do.

(3)

17 Moreover they did adde yet more against him for to ſin:
by their provoaking the moſt high the wildernes within.
18 And alſo they within their heart did tempt the God of might:
by asking earnestly for meat
for their ſoules appetite: 19 Moreover they againſt God ſpake:
they ſayd can God be able within

P S A L M E lxx viii.

within the desart wildernes to furnish us a table:

20 Loe, he the rock smote, thence gush't out waters, & streames did flow:
for his folk can he flesh provide,
can he give bread also?

21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this,
so kindled was a fire
'gainst Jacob: & 'gainst Israell
there came up wrathfull ire.

22 For they in God believed not:
nor in his health did hope:

23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds:
& doores of heav'n set ope:

(4)

24 Manna to eat he rain'd on them; & gave them the heavns wheat.

25 Each man of them ate Angells food:
to th'full he sent them meate.

26 Ith heav'ns he made the East-winde blow:
brought South-winde by his powre.

27 He flesh on them like dust: wing'd foules like the seas sand did shou're.

28 And in the middest of their camp he caused it to fall, ev'n round about on every side their dwelling places all.

29 So they did eat, they filled were abundantly also:
for that which was their owne desire
he did on them bestow;

PSALM lxx viii.

30 Howbeit they were not estrang'd from their lustfull desire:
but while their meat was in their mouths, 31 Upon them came Gods ire,
And slew their fat ones: & smote downe of Israell the choise men.
32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.

(s)

33 Therefore he did in vanity the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearfull end.
34 When he them slew, then after him they sought with their desire:
and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
35 Likewise that God was their strong rock they cal'd to memoree:
and that the mighty God most high,
was their Redeemer free.
36 Yet with their mouth they flattred him:
and to him their tongues lyde.
37 For right their heart was not in them:
nor did in's cov'nant byde.
38 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not;
yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor ray'd all's anger hot.
39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh, and as it were a wnde

that

P S A L M E lxx viii.

that passeth, & comes not againe, recalled unto minde.

40 How oft in desart vext they him:
and made him there to moane?

41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint Isr'ells holy one.

42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance:
wherein he from the enemy
gave them deliverance:

43 And how his signes miraculous in Eg ipt he had showne:
and his most fearfull prodigies within the field of Zoan:

44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
& (that they could not drink therof)
the waters of their floud.

45 Amongst them, which did them devoure, he sent forth divers flies:
& them amongst, which them destroyd, he sent forth frogs likewise.

46 He gave their fruit to th'Caterpillar:
their labour to th'Locust.

47 He did their Vines destroy with hail: their Sycamores with frost.

48 Also unto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast:
likewise their heards of cattell to the fiery thunder blast,

PSALM lxx viii.

49 He cast on them fierce ire, & wrath, & indignation, & sore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.

(7)

50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave,

51 He within Egipt land also all the first borne did smite:
those that within the tents of Ham were chiefeſt of their might:

52 But he made like a flock of sheep his owne folk forth to go:
like to a flock iſh wildernes he guided them also.

53 And he in safety did them lead so that they did not dread:
within the ſea their enemies he alſo covered.

54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place:
unto this mountaine which he did
by his right hand purchase.

55 Fore them he cast the heathen out, their lot he did devide by line: & Iſr'ells tribes he made in their tents to abide.

(8)

55 Yet they tempted the moſt high God,

and

P S A L M E lxx viii.

& griev'd him bitterly:
also his testimonyes they kept not attentively:

57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did show:
they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.

58 For they to anger did provoake him with their places hye: & with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.

59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Isr'ell with hatred great:

60 So Shiloh's tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set,

61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:
also into the enemies hand
his beautifull glory.

62 To th' sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.

63 Fire their young men devout'd: their maides none gave to marriage.

64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.

65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:
Like a strong man that after wine

66 doth shout. He also smote his foes behinde: & so he gave them an eternall blot.

PSALM lxxviii, lxxix.

(9)

67 Then he did Iosephs tent refuse:
nor Ephr'ims tribe approv'd.
68 But he the tribe of Iudah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
69 And he his Sanctuary built like unto places high:
like to the earth which he did found
to perpetuity.
70 Of David also his servant election he did make,
and from the place of folding up the sheep he did him take.
71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance, to feed Jacob his folk, also Isr'ell his inheritance.
72 So he according to his hearts integritiy them fed:
and by the wise discretion of his hands he them led.

Psalme 79

A psalme of Asaph.

thine inheritance, & defylde thine holy temple: they on heaps Ierusalem have pylde.

for beasts of earth to eate.

5 How long, Ichovah, wilt thou still for ever? shall thy jealousie burne like as doth the fire?

6 Vpon the heathen poure thy wrath which never did thee know, upon the kingdomes that have not his habitation

they also wondrously have brought
to desolation.

O Isr'ells shepheard, give thou care;
that Ioseph leadst about like as a flock: that dwelst betweene the Cherubims, shine out.
2 Before Ephr'ím & Benjamin, Manasseh's tribe also,
doe thou stir up thy strength, & come,
and to us safety show.
3 O God returne thou us againe, and cause thy countenance to shine forth upon us; so wee shall have deliverance.

8 Thou hast brought out of Egipt land a Vine, thou diddest cast the heathen people forth, also this Vine thou planted hast.
9 Before it thou prepared hast a roome where it might stand:
deep root thou didst cause it to take and it did fill the land.
10 Her shade hid hills, & her boughs did like Cedars great extend.
11 Her boughs to th' sea, & her branches she to the floud did send.
12 Why hast thou then her hedges made so that all those doe pluck at her

A psalme of Asaph.

The mighty God doth stand within th'assemblie of the strong:
and he it is that righteously doth judge the gods among.

- 2 How long a time is it that yee will judge unrighteouslie?

- 4 The wasted poore, & those that are needy deliver yee;
and them redeeme out of the hand of such as wicked bee.
- 5 They know not,nor will understand,
in darknes they walk on:

Psalme 56

A prayer of David.

B Bow downe o Lord, thine eare, & harken unto mee:

because that I afflicted am,
also I am needie.

2 Doe thou preserve my soule, for gracious am I:

o thou my God, thy servant save,
that doth on thee rely.

3 Lord pitty me, for I daily cry thee unto.

4 Rejoyce thy servants soule: for Lord, to thee mine lift I do.

5 For thou o Lord, art good,
to pardon prone withall:
and to them all in mercy rich that doe upon thee call.

6 Iehovah, o doe thou give eare my pray'r unto:
& of my supplications attend the voyce also.

7 In day of my distresse, to thee I will complaine:
by reason that thou unto mee wilt answer give againe.

8 Amongst the gods, o Lord, none

PSALM LXXXVI.

none is there like to thee:
neither with thine are any work that may compared bee.

9 All nations o Lord, whom thou hast made, the same shall come & worship thee before:
and glorify thy Name.

10 Because thou mighty art, the things that thou hast done are wonderfull, thou art thy selfe the mighty God alone.

11 Iehovah, unto mee
o make thy way appeare, walk in thy truth I will; mine heart unite thy name to feare.

12 Withall mine heart I will o Lord my God, thee prayse: & I will glorify thy name, for evermore always.

13 Because that unto mee thy mercy doth excell;
also thou hast delivered
my soule from lowest hell.

16 O turne thou unto mee, and mercy on mee have:
unto thy servant give thy strength:
thine handmaides son do save.

17 Mee shew a signe for good,
that mine haters may see,
and be ashamed; because Lord, thou

2 Before thee o let my pray'r come:
incline thine eare unto my cry.
3 Because my soule is troubled so:
and my life draws nigh to the grave.
4 Counted with them to th' pit that go:
I'me as a man that no strength have.
5 Free among those men that be dead, like slaine which in the grave are shut;
by thee noe more remembered:
and by thy hand off are they cut.
6 Thou hast mee layd i'th pit most low

PSALM

P S A L M E Ixxxix.

THe mercyes of Iehovah sing for evermore will I: I'le with my mouth thy truth make known to all posterity.

2 For I have sayd that mercy shall for ever be up built;
establish in the very heav'ns thy faithfullnes thou wilt.

3 With him that is my chosen one
I made a covenant:
& by an oath have sworne unto David mine owne servant.

4 To perpetuity thy seed establish-sure I will:
also to generations all thy throne I'le build up till.      Selah.

5 Also the heav'ns thy wonders Lord, they shall with prayse confess;
in the assemblie of the Saints also thy faithfullnes.

6 For who can be compar'd unto the Lord the heav'ns within?
'mong sonnes of mighty to the Lord who is't that's like to him.

7 I'th Saints assemblie greatly God is to be had in feare:
and to be reverenc't of all those that round about him are.

8 Lord God of hoasts, what Lord like thee in power doth abide?

PSALM lxxxix.

thy faithfullnes doth compasse thee also on every side.

9 Over the raging of the sea, thou dost dominion beare:
when as the waves therof arise,
by thee they stilled are.

10 Like to one slaine, thou broken hast in pieces Rahab quite:
thou hast disperst thine enemies ev'n by thine arme of might.

11 The heav'ns together with the earth, thine are they: thine they bee;
the world, with fullnes of the same,
founded they were by thee.

12 The North together with the South thou didst create the same:
Tabor together with Hermon, rejoyce shall in thy Name.

(3)

13 Thou hast a very mighty arme, thy hand it is mighty,
and also thy right hand it is exalted up on high.

14 Justice & judgement of thy throne are the prepared place:
mercy & truth preventing shall goe forth before thy face.

15 O blessed are the people that the joyfull sound doe know, Lord, in thy countenances light they up & downe shall goe:

16 They

P S A L M E lxxxix.

16 They shall in thy name all the day rejoyce exceedingly:
and in thy righteousness they shall be lifted up on high.

17 Because that thou art unto them
the glory of their powre:
our horne shall be exalted high,
also in thy favour.

18 Because Iehovah is to us a safe protection;
and he that is our Soveraigne, is Isr'ells Holy-one.
(4)

19 Then didst thou speake in vision, unto thy Saint, & sayd, I upon one that mighty is salvation have layd:
One from the folk chose, I set up.

20 David my servant I have found: him I annoynted with mine oyle of sanctity.

21 With whom my hand shall stablisht be;
mine arme him strengthen shall.

22 Also the enemy shall not exact on him at all:
Nor shall the Son of wickednes afflict him any more.

23 Before him I'le beat downe his foes, and plague his haters sore.

24 My mercy,truth,shall be with him;
& in my name shall be

PSALM lxxx ix.

25 his horne exalted. And I'le set his hand upon the sea:
    I'lh rivers also his right hand.
26 He shall cry mee unto,
    thou art my Father: & my God, Rock of my health also.
27 Also I will make him to be my first begotten one:
    higher then those that Princes are,
        who dwell the earth upon.
28 My mercy I will keep for him to times which ever last:
    also my covenant with him
        it shall stand very fast.

(5)

29 And I will make his seed indure to perpetuitee:
    his throne likewis like unto the dayes of heav'n shall bee.
30 If that his sons forsake my law,
    & from my judgements swerve: 31 If they my stattutes break, & my commandes doe not observe: 32 Then will I visit with the rod their bold transgression, as also their iniquity with sore stripes them upon.
33 But yet my loving kindnes, it I'le not take utterly away from him: nor will suffer my faithfullnes to lye.

PSALM E lxxxix,

34 The covenant I made with him by mee shall not be broke:
    neither will I alter the thing which by my lips is spoke.

35 Once sware I by my holines, if I to David lye:

36 His seed asuredly shall last
    to perpetuity:
        And like the Sun 'fore mee his throne.

37 It like the moone for aye shall be establish't, like a true witnesse in heav'n: Selah.

38 But thou hast cast off, & us had in detestation:
    exceedingly thou hast been wroth with thine annoynted one.

39 Thou hast made voyd the covenant of thy servant, his crowne thou hast prophan'd unto the ground by casting of it downe.

40 Thou hast broke all his hedges downe:
    his forts thou ruin'd hast.

41 All those doe make a spoyle of him who by the way have past:
        Hee's a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Of them that him annoy thou hast advanced their right hand: & made all's foes to joy.

43 The sharp edge also of his sword thou hast turn'd backward quite:

PSALM lxxxix.

and in the battell thou hast not made him to stand upright.

44 Thou hast made also for to cease his glorious renowne:
unto the very earth his throne thou also hast cast downe.

45 And of his youthfull yeares the dayes thou hast diminished;
with very great confusion thou hast him covered.      Selah.

(7)

46 How long? Ichovah, wilt thou hide thy selfe for evermore?
burne like unto consuming fire shall thy displeasure sore?

47 To thy remembrance doe thou call how short a time have I; wherefore hast thou created all mens sonnes to vanity?

48 What strong man is there that doth live, & death shall never see?
from the strong power of the grave shall he his soule set free?

49 Thy former loving kindenesse o Lord, where are they now?
which in thy truth & faithfullnes to David thou didst vow.

50 Lord, the reproach of thy servants unto remembrance call:
how I it beare in my bosome from mighty people all.

P S A L M E Ixxxix, xC.

51 Wherewith thy adversaryes Lord, have cast reproach upon, wherewith they have reproacht the steps

Amen, so let it be, also Amen, so it shall bee.

Psalm 90.

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

O LORD, thou hast been unto us from generation, to generation, a place
    of fixed mansion.

2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, ere earth & world by thee were form'd: thou art eternally God to eternitee.

3 Thou dost unto destruction
    turne miserable men:
and then thou sayst yee sonnes of men doe yee returne agen.

4 For why o Lord, a thousand yeares are but within thy sight as yesterday when it is past:

and

and as a watch by night.

5 By thee like as it were a flood they quite away are borne, they like a sleep, & as the grasse that grows up in the morne.

6 It in the morning flourisheth, it also up doth grow;
it in the ev'ning is cut downe it withereth also.

7 Because wee by thine anger are consumed speedily:
and by thy sore displeasure wee are troubled suddenly.

8 Thou hast set our iniquityes before thee in thy sight:
our secret evills are within
thy countenances light.

9 Because in thine exceeding wrath our dayes all passe away:
our years wee have consumed quite,
ev'n as a tale are they.

10 Threescore & ten yearcs are the dayes of our yeares which remaine, & if through strength they fourscore be,
their strength is grief & paine:
For it's cut off soone, & wee flye

13 Turne Lord, how long? of thy servants let it repent thee yet?

14 O give us satisfaction that so rejoice, & be right glad,

through all our dayes may wee.

15 According to the dayes wherin affliction wee have had,
and yeares wherin wee have seen ill,
now also make us glad.

16 Vnto those that thy servants be doe thou thy work declare:

A Psalme

A New song sing unto the Lord, for wonders he hath done:
his right hand & his holy arme him victory hath wonne.

2 Iehovah his salvation hath made for to be knowne:
his righteousnes i'th heathens sight hee openly hath showne.

3 To Isr'ells house of his mercy & truth hath mindefull been:
the ends of all the earth they have our Gods salvation seene.

4 Vnto Iehovah all the earth, make yee a joyfull noyse:
make yee also a cheerfull sound, sing prayse, likewise rejoyce.

5 With Harp sing to the Lord; with Harp, also with a Psalms voyce.

6 With Trumpets, Cornets sound; before the Lord the King rejoyce.

7 The sea let with her fullnes roare:
the world, & there who dwell.

8 O let the flouds clap hands: let hills rejoyce together well

9 Before the Lord, for he doth come to judge the earth: rightly with justice shall he judge the world, & folk with equity.

4 My heart is smote, & dryde like grasse, that I to eate my bread forgot:
5 By reason of my groanings voyce my bones unto my skin are set.
6 Like Pelican in wildernes, like Owle in desart so am I: 7 I watch, & like a sparrow am on house top solitarily.
8 Mine enemies daily mee reproach:
'gainst mee they rage, 'gainst mee they sweare:
9 I hat I doe ashes eate for bread:
& mixe my drink with weeping-teare.

17 The poor's petition hee'l regard, & hee will not despise their pray'r.
18 This shall in writing be intoll'd for the succeeding-after-race:
that people also which shall bee created, they the Lord may prayse.
19 For from his Sanctuary high from heavn's the Lord the earth doth see: 20 To heare the groanes of prisoners:
to loose them that deathis children bee.
21 The Lords prayse in Ierusalem:

24 I sayd, in middest of my dayes my God doe not away take mee:
Thy yeares throughout all ages are.
25 Thou hast the earth's foundation layd for elder time: & heavens bee the work which thine owre hands have made.
26 They perish shall, but thou shalt stand:
they all as garments shall decay:

Psalme 107.

O Give yee thanks unto the Lord, because that good is hee:
because his loving kindenes lasts to perpetuitec.

2 So let the Lords redeem'd say: whom hee freed from th'enemies hands:
3 And gathred them from East, & West, from South, & Northerne lands.
4 I'th desart, in a desart way they wandred: no towne finde, 5 to dwell in. Hungry & thirsty:
their soule within them pinde.
6 Then did they to Iehovah cry when they were in distresse:
who did them set at liberty

out of their anguishes.

7 In such a way that was most right he led them forth also:
that to a citte which they might inhabit they might go.

8 O that men would Iehovah prayse for his great goodnes then:
& for his workings wonderfull unto the sonnes of men.

9 Because that he the longing soule doth throughly satisfy:
the hungry soule he also fills with good abundantly.

10 Such as in darknes & within the shade of death abide;
who are in sore affliction,
also in yron tyde:

11 By reason that against the words of God they did rebell;
also of him that is most high contemned the counsell.

12 Therefore with molestation hee did bring downe their heart:
downe did they fall, & none their was

13 Then did they to Iehovah cry when they were in distress:
who did them set at liberty

PSALME Cxviii, Cxix.

23 Thou art my God, & I'le thee prayse, my God I'le set thee hye.
29 O prayse the Lord, for he is good, and aye lafts his mercy.

Psalme 119.

N (1) Aleph

A LL-blest are men upright of way:
walk in Iehovahs law who do.

2 Blest such as doe his records keepe:
with their whole heart him seek also.
3 And that work no iniquitie:
but in his wayes doe walke indeed.
4 Thou haft giv'n charge, with diligence unto thy precepts to give heed.
5 Ah that to keepe thy statutes: so my wayes addressed were by thee.
6 When I respect thy precepts all, then shall I not ashamed bee.
7 Whē I thy righteous judgements learne with hearts uprightenes I'le thee prayse.
8 Forsake thou mee not utterly:
I will observe thy flatute-wayes.

B (2) Beth

9 By what may ' young man cleanse his way?
by heeding it as thy word guides.
10 With my whole heart thee have I sought:
thy lawes let mee not goe besides.
11 I in my heart thy word have hid:
that I might not against thee sin.
12 Thou o Iehovah, blessed art:
thine owne statutes instruct mee in.

PSALM Cxix.

13 All the just judgements of thy mouth declared with my lips have I.
14 I in thy testimonies way joy more then in all rich plenty.
15 In thy precepts I'le meditate:
and have respect unto thy wayes, 16 My selfe I'le solace in thy lawes:
and not forget what thy word sayes.

ג (3) Gimel

17 Confer this grace thy servant to, that I may live thy word to keep.
18 Vnveile mine eyes, that I may see out of thy law the wonders deep.
19 I am a stranger in the earth:
do not thy precepts from me hide.
20 My soule is broken with desire unto thy judgements time & tide.
21 Thou hast rebuk'd the proud, acurst which doe frō thy commandments swerve.
22 Roll off from mee reproach & scorne:
for I thy records doe observe.
23 Ev'n Princes fate & 'gainst mee spake;
but on thy lawes thy servant mus'd.
24 Thy records also are my joyes:
and for men of my counsell us'd.

ד (4) Daleth

25 Downe to the dust my soule cleav's fast:
o quicken mee after thy word.
26 I shew'd my wayes & thou mee heardst:
thy statutes learning mee afford.
27 Thy precepts way make mee to know:

PSALM Cxix.

so I'le muse on thy wondrous wayes.
23 My soule doth melt for heavines:
according to thy word mee rayse.
29 The way of lying from mee take:
and thy law grant mee graciously.
30 The way of truth I chosen have:
thy judgements 'fore mee layd have I.
31 Thy testimonies cleave I to;
o Lord, on mee shame do not cast.
32 Then shall I run thy precepts way, when thou mine heart enlarged hast.

E □ (5) He.

33 Enforme mee Lord, in thy laws path;
and I will keep it to the end.
34 Skill give mee, & thy law I'le keep:
yea with my whole heart it attend.
35 Cause mee to tread thy precepts path;
because therin delight I do.
36 Vnto thy records bend my heart; & covetousnes not unto.
37 From vaine sights turne away mine eyes:
and in thy way make mee to live.
38 Confirm thy word thy servant to,
who to thy feare himselfe doth give.
39 My slander which I feare remove;
because thy judgements good they bee.
40 Loe for thy precepts I have lon'gd:
o in thy justice quicken mee.

F ¶ (6) Vau.

41 Finde mee out let thy mercies Lord:
thy saving health as thou hast sayd.

PSALM Cxix.

42 So I my taunters answer shall,
for on thy word my hope is stayd.
43 Nor truths-word quite frō my mouth take:
because thy judgements I attend.
44 So I thy law shall alway keep,
to everlasting without end.
45 And I will walk at libertie, because I doe thy precepts seek.
46 Nor will I blush, when before Kings
I of thy testimonies speak.
47 In thy commands, which I have lov'd, also my selfe delight I will.
48 And lift my hands to thy commands belov'd: & minde thy statutes still.

G (7) Sajin.

49 Good to thy servant make the word, on which to hope thou didst mee give.
50 This was my comfort in my grieve, because thy word doth make mee live.
51 The proud have much derided mee:
yet have I not thy law declinde.
52 Thy judgements Lord, that are of old,
I did recall, & comfort finde.
53 Horrour hath taken hold on mee:
for lewd men that thy law forsake.
54 I, in my pilgrimages house, of thy statutes my songs doe make.
55 By night remembred I thy Name, o Lord: & I thy law observe.
56 This hath been unto mee, because I from thy precepts did not swerve.

H □ (8) Heth.

57 Hee, ev'n the Lord, my portion is,
I said that I would keep thy word.
58 With my whole heart thy face I begg'd:
thy promis'd mercies mee afford.
59 I thought upon my waies, & turn'd my feet into thy testaments.
60 I hasted, & made no delaies to keepe with heed thy commandments.
61 The bands of wicked men mee robb'd:
of thy law I am not mindeles.
62 Ile rise at midnight thee to praise;
for judgements of thy righteousnes.
63 Companion am I to all them, that feare thee, & thy laws doe heed.
64 Thy mercie fills the earth, o Lord: teach mee the lawes thou hast decreed.

I □ (9) Teth.

65 Iehovah, with thy servant thou after thy word, right-well hast done.
66 Good taste & knowledge, teach thou mee, for I believe thy precepts on.
67 Before I was chastis'd, I stray'd:
but I thy word observ'd have now.
68 Thou art good, & art doing good:
thy statutes teach mee, oh doe thou.
69 The proud against mee forg'd a lye:
thy laws I'le keepe with my hearts-might.
70 The heart of them is fat as grease:
but in thy law I doe delight.
71 It's good for mee, I was chastis'd:

PSALM Cxix.

that so thy statutes learne I should.

72 Better to mee is thy mouths-law, then thousands of silver & gold.

(10) Iod.

73 Know make mee, & I'le learn thy lawes:
thy hands mee formed have, & made.

74 Who feare thee, mee shall see, & joy:
because hope in thy word I had.

75 Thy judgements Lord, I know are just;
& faithfully thou chastnedst mee.

76 As thou hast to thy servant spoke,
now let thy grace my comfort bee.

77 Send mee thy grace, that I may live;
for thy law as my joy I chule.

78 Shame proud ones, that mee falsely wrong:
but I will in thy precepts muse.

79 Let them that feare thee turne to mee;
and such as have thy records knowne.

80 Let my heart bee in thy lawes found that so I shame may suffer none.

(11) Caph.

81 Look for thy word I doe, when as my soule doth faint for help from thee.

82 Mine eies have failed for thy word, saying, when wilt thou comfort mee?

83 I like a smoake-dride-bottle am;
yet doe I not thy laws forgoe.

84 What are thy servants daies? when wilt on my pursuers judgement doe?

85 The proud have digged pits for mee, which doe not unto thy law sute.

PSALM Cxix.

86 All thy comands are truth: help mee, they wrongfully mee persecute.
87 They nigh had wasted mee on earth,
but I thy laws did not forsake.
88 To keep the records of thy mou h, mee in thy mercie lively make.

Made fast i'th heavens is thy word,

PSALM CXL.

To the chief musician, a psalm
of David,

L ORD, free mee from the evill man:
from violent man mee save.

4 Keepe mee, Lord, from the wickedes hands,
from violent man mee save:
my goings who to overthrow in thought projected have.

5 The proud have hid a snare for mee, cords also: they a net
have spred abroad by the way side:
grins for mee they have set. Selah.

6 Vnto Iehovah I did say, thou art a God to mee:
Lord, heare the voice of my requests, which are for grace to thee.

let him reprove mee eke,
it shall be such a pretious oyle,
my head it shall not breake:
For yet my pray'r's ev'n in their woes.

6 When their judges are cast on rocks, then shall they heare my words, for they are sweet to taste.

7 Like unto one who on the earth doth cutt & cleave the wood, ev'n so our bones at the graves mouth are scattered abroad.

8 But unto thee o God, the Lord directed are mine eyes:
my soule o leave not destitute,
on thee my hope relyes.

9 O doe thou keepe mee from the snare which they have layd for mee;

Psalme 146.

THe Lord praise: praise(my soule)the Lord.

So long as I doe live I'le praise the Lord; while that I am, praise to my God I'le give.

3 Trust not in Princes; nor mans son who can no succour send.
4 His breath goe's forth,to's earth he turnes, his thoughts that day doe end.
5 Happie is hee that hath the God of Iacob for his ayd:
whose expectation is upon Iehovah his God stayd.
6 Which heav'n,earth,sea.all in them made:
truth keeps for evermore:
7 Which for th'oppressed judgement doth, gives to the hungry store, 8 The Lord doth loose the prisoners.
the Lord ope's eyes of blinde,
the Lord doth raise the bowed downe;
the Lord to'th just is kinde.
9 The Lord saves stangers, & reliefs the orphan, & widow:
but hee of them that wicked are the way doth overthrow.

- 10 The Lord shall reigne for euermore, thy God, o Sion, hee to generations all shall reigne:
o prayse Iehovah yee.

Psalme 147.

P Rayse yee the Lord, for it is good praises to sing, to our God for it's sweet, praise is a comely thing.

- 2      Jerusalem
the Lord up-reares, outcasts gathers
of Iſre'ell them.
- 3      The broke in heart he heales:
& up their wounds doth binde.
- 4      The stars by number tells:
hee calls them all by kinde.
- 5      Our Lord great is,
& of great might,
yea infinite
his knowledge 'tis.
- 6      The Lord sets up the low:
wicked to ground doth fling.
- 7      Sing thanks the Lord unto on Harp, our Gods praise sing.
- 8      Who clouds the skyes,
to earth gives raines:
who on mountaines
makes grass to rise.
- 9      Beasts, hee & ravens young when as they cry feeds then.

10 Joyes not in horses strong:
nor in the leggs of men.
11 The Lord doth place his pleasure where men doe him feare,
& hope on's grace.
12 Ierusalem, God praise:
Sion thy God confess:
13 For thy gates barres he stayes:
in thee thy sons doth bles.
14 Peace maketh hee
in borders thine:
with wheat so fine
hee filleth thee.
15 On earth sends his decree:
swiftly his word doth pass.
16 Gives snow like wool, spreds hee his hoare frost ashes as.
17 His yce doth cast like morsels to:
fore his cold who
can stand stedfast?
18 His word sends, & them thaws:
makes winde blow, water flows.
19 His word, Iacob; his laws, & judgements Isr'ell shows.
20 Hee hath so done
no nation to,
judgements also
they have not knowne.

P S A L M E C x l v i i i .

Psalme 148. Hallelujah.

From heav'n o praise the Lord: him praise the heights within.

2 All's Angells praise afford, all's Armies praise yee him.

3 O give him praise
Sun & Moone bright:
all Stars of light,
o give him praise.

4 Yee heav'ns of heav'ns him praise:
or'e heav'ns yee waters cleare.

5 The Lords Name let them praise:
for hee spake, made they were.

6 Them stablisht hee
for ever & aye:
nor shall away
his made decree.

7 Praise God from th'earth below:
yee dragons & each deepe.

8 Fire & haile, mist & snow:
whirl-windes his word which keepe.

9 Mountaines, also you hills all yee:
each fruitfull tree,
all Cedars too.

10 Beasts also all cattell:
things creeping, foules that flye.

11 Earths kings, & all people:
princes, earths judges bye:
doe all the same.

12 Young men & maidis:

PSALM Cxlvii, Cxliii.

old men & babes.

13 Praise the Lord's Name, For his Name's hye only:
his glory o're earth & heav'n.
14 His folks horne he lifts hye the praise of all's Saints, ev'n the sons who bee
of Israell,
his neere people,
the Lord praise yee.

Psalm 149.

Praise yee the Lord: unto the Lord doe yee sing a new song: & in the congregation his praise the Saints among.

2 Let Israell now joyfull bee in him who him hath made:
children of Sion in their King
o let them be full glad.
3 O let them with melodious flute his Name give praise unto:
let them sing praises unto him with Timbrell, Harp also.
4 Because Jehovah in his folk doth pleasure greatly take:
the meek bee with salvation ev'n beautifull will make.
5 Let them the gracious Saints that be most gloriously rejoice: & as they lye upon their beds lift up their singing voyce.

PSALM CXLX, CL.

- 6 Let their mouths have Gods praise: their hand a two edg'd sword also:
- 7 On heathen vengeance, on the folk punishment for to do:
- 8 Their kings with chaines, with yron bolts
also their peers to binde:
- 9 To doe on them the judgement writ:
all's Saints this honour finde.

Hallelujah.

Psalme 150.

- Praise yee the Lord, praise God in's place of holines:
o praise him in the firmament of his great mightnes.
- 2 O praise him for his acts that be magnifickt:
& praise yee him according to his greatness excellent.
- 3 With Trumpet praise yee him that gives a sound so bye:
& doe yee praise him with the Harp, & sounding Psaltery.
- 4 With Timbrell & with Flute praise unto him give yee:
with Organs, & string'd instruments prai'ed by you let him bee.
- 5 Upon the loude Cymballs unto him give yee praise:
upon the Cimballs praise yee him which bye their sound doe rale.

PSALM C I.

6 Let every thing to which the Lord doth breath afford the praises of the Lord set forth:
O doe yee praise the Lord.

FINIS

An admonition to the Reader.

The verses of these psalmes may be reduced to six kindes, the first wherof may be sung in verie neere fourty common tunes; as they are collected, out of our chief musicians, by Theo. Ravenscroft.

The second kinde may be sung in three tunes as Ps. 25. 50. & 67. in our english psalm books.

The third. may be sung indifferently, as ff. the 51. 100. & ten commandements, in our english psalme books. which three tunes aforesaid, comprehend almost all this whole book of psalmes, as being tunes most familiar to us.

The fourth. as ps. 148. of which there are but about five.

The fift. as ps. 112. or the Pater noster, of which there are but two. viz. 85. & 142.

The sixt. as ps. 113. of which but one, viz. 115.

Notes on the Reproduction

The process used for the production of this facsimile of the Bay Psalm Book of 1640 was line offset, with negatives made from an original copy of the Prince Collection in the Boston Public Library (No. 3 of the list printed in The Enigma of the Bay Psalm Book, p. 82). The pages were photographed, in exact size, by precision cameras in the shop of the Meriden Gravure Company at Meriden, Connecticut. Since the original copy, like all extant copies, contains a number of poorly printed pages, it seemed desirable to reproduce such pages from the second copy of the Prince Collection (No. 4 of the list).

The first facsimile of the Bay Psalm Book, published in 1903, was produced from the incomplete copy belonging to E. Dwight Church and now in the Huntington Library, using also the Lenox copy of the New York Public Library. In his Introduction, Wilberforce Eames, the foremost American bibliographer of his time, did not specify the pages prepared from the Lenox copy, mentioning as such only the first three leaves of the Preface. Yet the noting of substitutions may be useful. In the present facsimile the following pages were photographed from the second Prince copy: **v, A4v, F2, O3, S4, S4v, Tv, V3v (catchword retained from the first copy), V4, Aa, Aav, Aa2v, Aa4, Cc, Cc4v, Dd2, Dd2v, Ee, Eev, Ff4v, Ii3, Ll2. The catchwords of pages **2, D4, and R3v were also taken from the second Prince copy.

The presswork of the Bay Psalm Book was very uneven; Stephen Day at times thinned out the ink and at others splashed it over the forme, causing blotches and strong show-through. He probably never washed his type; signs of dried ink stuck between the letters are conspicuous throughout the book. The wet sheets must have attracted dust; and the fox-marks seem to have favored the edges of the letters as if the type, crushing the fiber of the paper, had rendered such areas especially sensitive. In making the present facsimile, these blemishes have been removed by careful opaquing, without retouching the negatives otherwise.

The earlier facsimile was produced from line cuts, that is, from plates prepared by etching; and, because of inept handling and the sponginess of the paper, the letters spread and became flat and heavy. No effort seems to have been made to clear the print of the ancient dirt. In contrast, the new facsimile has remarkable freshness and vitality.

Bibliographers may have preferred the reproduction of a single copy, with all its shortcomings, by the collotype process. The inclusion of the weak, barely legible, pages undoubtedly would have better revealed the quality of Day's printing. But even then only the characteristics of a particular copy would have been shown; for each copy has its own peculiar defects. It would have been unwarranted, therefore, to spoil the interest of the book for all but a few specialized scholars who can always examine the original copies. Still less could be said for perpetuating the damage wrought by time and usage.

The proofs were compared, letter by letter, with the original pages. For the correctness of the reproduction the writer testifies.
